

A great place to start with hard drive diagnostics is right at the manufacturer's web site. All major brand drives will have utilities for their drives, such as Maxtor's Maxblast or Western Digital's Data Lifeguard.